On June 13, 2019, MicroVision, Inc. (the “Company”) received a notification letter (the “Notice”) from The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) advising the Company that for 30 consecutive business days preceding the date of the Notice, the bid price of the Company’s common stock had closed below the $1.00 per share minimum required for continued listing on The Nasdaq Global Market pursuant to Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(1). In accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has been provided a compliance period of 180 calendar days, or until December 10, 2019, to regain compliance with this requirement.

The Company can regain compliance with the minimum closing bid price rule if the bid price of its common stock closes at $1.00 or higher for a minimum of ten consecutive business days during this initial 180-day compliance period. If compliance is not achieved by December 10, 2019, Nasdaq will provide written notification to the Company that its securities are subject to delisting.

The Company continues to monitor the bid price for its common stock. If its common stock does not trade at a level that is likely to regain compliance, the Company’s Board of Directors will consider the options available to achieve compliance.

On June 14, 2019, the Company issued a press release, attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1, reporting that it had received the Notice from Nasdaq.

MicroVision Receives Nasdaq Global Market Listing Deficiency Notice

REDMOND, Wash., June 14, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- MicroVision, Inc. (Nasdaq: MVIS) announced today that it received a notice on June 13, 2019 from The Nasdaq Stock Market advising the company that for 30 consecutive business days preceding the date of the notice, the bid price of the company's common stock had closed below the $1.00 per share minimum required for continued listing on The Nasdaq Global Market pursuant to Nasdaq's listing requirements. In accordance with Nasdaq's listing rules, the company has 180 calendar days, or until December 10, 2019, to regain compliance with this requirement. This notification is simply a notice of deficiency, not of imminent delisting, and has no current effect on the listing or trading of MicroVision's common stock on The Nasdaq Global Market at this time.

During the 180-day compliance period, MicroVision can regain compliance if the bid price of its common stock closes at $1.00 or higher for a minimum of ten consecutive business days. If the company does not regain compliance by December 10, 2019, Nasdaq will notify the company that its securities are subject to delisting.

The company is monitoring the bid price for its common stock. The company continues to execute its business plan and will consider other actions that it may take in order to regain compliance with the listing requirements.

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this release, including those relating to MicroVision's expectations, intentions or strategies, are forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in our forward-looking statements include the following: the risk that MicroVision may not regain compliance with the continued listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market; capital market risks; our ability to raise additional capital when needed; market acceptance of our technologies and products, and for products incorporating our technologies; the failure of our commercial partners to perform as expected under our agreements; our ability to identify parties interested in paying any amounts or amounts we deem desirable for the purchase or license of intellectual property assets; our or our customers' failure to perform under open purchase orders; our financial and technical resources relative to those of our competitors; our ability to keep up with rapid technological change; government regulation of our technologies; our ability to enforce our intellectual property rights and protect our proprietary technologies; the ability to obtain additional contract awards and to develop partnership opportunities; the timing of commercial product launches and delays in product development; the ability to achieve key technical milestones in key products; dependence on third parties to develop, manufacture, sell and market our products; potential product liability claims; and other risk factors identified from time to time in the company's SEC reports, including the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC. These factors are not intended to represent a complete list of the general or specific factors that may affect us. It should be recognized that other factors, including general economic factors and business strategies, may be significant, now or in the future, and the factors set forth in this release may affect us to a greater extent than indicated. Except as expressly required by federal securities laws, we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, changes in circumstances or any other reason.
